Pursuit Announces Continued Growth with New Attraction in Iceland

Pursuit to open FlyOver flight ride experience in Reykjavik, Iceland

DENVER – Pursuit, a business unit of Viad Corp, announced today that it will expand its flight ride concept into Iceland’s capital city of Reykjavik. Modeled after Pursuit’s highly-successful FlyOver Canada attraction, FlyOver Iceland will provide guests with an exhilarating virtual flight experience over Iceland’s most spectacular scenery and natural wonders. The new attraction is expected to open in 2019.

David Barry, president of Pursuit, said, “The FlyOver concept creates an unforgettable experience for guests with breathtaking scenery and the feeling of flight. We are thrilled to expand that concept into a new iconic tourism destination. Located in Reykjavik, Iceland this attraction will be our first expansion outside of North America and, with the region enjoying robust tourism growth, it’s the perfect location for a FlyOver attraction.”

Pursuit will operate FlyOver Iceland through the Icelandic entity Esja Attractions ehf. (“Esja”). Esja has already secured an ideal location in Reykjavik and, through a majority equity investment by Viad, has secured the necessary equity funding required to construct the FlyOver attraction.

Barry continued, “With this acquisition, we achieve another strategic milestone for Pursuit that reinforces our long-term vision of becoming the world’s leading provider of experiential adventure travel. In doing so, we are excited to partner with Esja’s team of seasoned professionals. They bring deep experience in the rapidly-growing Icelandic tourism market.”
